Commander's Message

By Alex Kolander, 414-322-8702

GREETINGS FELLOW LEGIONNAIRES:

September already, wow, where did the summer go? I guess at my age it all goes by fast. I hope all is well with everyone and your summer has been very pleasant and gatherings have been making memories.

Please attend our annual Octoberfest on October 10th. I am doing my normal 150 lbs porker which will be served with all the normal German trimmings. Trimmings will be prepared by our wonderful kitchen staff. Don't forget the German costume contest with prizes of $100/$75/$50 for first, second and third place. We will have a number of Octoberfest beers available.

How about anyone out there baking a German chocolate cake? Please bring to the post the morning of the 10th at 0930.

Also, remember our annual Christmas Extravaganza on December 5th. Free pictures with family and dogs.

Look at the enclosed flyer for our Bingo Sundays for a great time.

Note that on October 28th we will host a first responders day from 11-3p. Please come in and welcome these local heroes. We will provide free hot dogs and brats to them. There will be libations served also.

Now that the weather will be getting cooler stop in on Friday and Saturday evenings for great music and an opportunity to dance with your favorite partner. Or perhaps just to get to know someone from the area.

AND GOD SAID:

"Whatever you do, work with all your heart, as working for the lord, not for human masters." (Colossians 3:23)
This verse reminds you that your daily tasks and efforts at work (the Legion perhaps?), are an act of worship to God.

"A sluggard's appetite is never filled, but the desires of the diligent are fully satisfied." (Proverbs 13:4)
This verse means that diligence and hard work help build strong, productive organizations, POST 449?

Summer's winding down, and that means football season is here! Make Post 449 your Packer headquarters this fall — the kitchen will be open, so stop in for food and drinks and cheer on our team together. We've got a great lineup of events coming up, and we need your help to make them happen.
October 10th — Oktoberfest. 50% of proceeds go straight to our Children and Youth Fund. We need volunteers for donations, basket raffles, and help in kitchen.
October 28th — First Responders Day, 11 AM–3 PM. First responders eat free! We'll need help in the kitchen, and we're looking for someone from SAL, ALA, and the Post on hand to help sign up new members.
October 31st — Truck or Treat, 1–3 PM. Candy donations and volunteers needed.
Also — a big shoutout to our Chaplain, who has been working hard on the Brave Program.
We've got three great organizations under one roof, and I know we all want to see our Post be the best it can be. Let's come together and make this fall a success. Suggestions are always welcome — feel free to call me anytime.

Thank you all,

Dave Landrith

VA NEWS & INFORMATION:

VA Reports Record Prescription Drug Savings

The Department of Veterans Affairs announced a record $10.44 billion in prescription drug savings so far in FY 2026, the largest total in VA history. Officials say the savings will help VA treat more Veterans, invest in emerging therapies, and make better use of taxpayer funding.

VA also highlighted broader service improvements, including more than 215,000 new Veteran healthcare enrollments, 40 new VA healthcare facilities, a benefits backlog reduced by more than 70%, expanded appointment access, and 51,936 homeless Veterans permanently housed.

Did you know GI Bill Benefits can be used for Career Training Programs?

The GI Bill isn't just for college degrees — Veterans, service members, Guard and Reserve members, and eligible dependents can use their benefits for hands-on, career-focused programs like HVAC repair, truck driving, EMT training, barbering, and cosmetology.

VA calculates your payment based on weekly training hours, enrollment dates, and your benefit type. Post-9/11 GI Bill rates also factor in your service tier and class location. You can use remaining benefits for additional programs after completing your first one.

VA Launches Psilocybin Trial for Treatment-Resistant Depression

The Department of Veterans Affairs has begun a new clinical trial testing psilocybin as a potential treatment for Veterans with major depressive disorder that hasn't responded to existing therapies, including those who also have PTSD. The study — called PIVOT — follows a recent executive order aimed at accelerating research and approval of innovative treatments for serious mental illness.

The randomized trial will compare two dosage levels and track changes in depression symptoms, side-effect tolerability, and patient-reported outcomes. It will take place at five VA medical centers across Alabama, Oregon, Pennsylvania, and Washington. VA emphasizes strict FDA-aligned safety protocols, pharmaceutical-grade substances, and psychological support throughout the study.

VA is currently involved in 20 additional psychedelic-therapy trials, but notes that clinical use outside research will only be considered after FDA approval. Veterans are strongly advised not to self-medicate with psychedelics and to rely on evidence-based care available through VA providers.

High-Demand Skilled Trades Pathways for Veterans

The U.S. is facing a major shortage of skilled workers, with hundreds of thousands of open jobs in construction, manufacturing, and shipbuilding. Many of these careers offer paid apprenticeships and on-the-job training—no four-year degree required—making them strong opportunities for Veterans whose military experience aligns naturally with industry needs.

To help Veterans access these careers, VA and the Department of Labor have strengthened their partnership, following two 2025 executive orders prioritizing expansion of Registered Apprenticeships and revitalization of maritime industries. Together, they're working to grow apprenticeship participation beyond one million and connect Veterans to employers nationwide.

VA recently launched a three-phase roundtable series to turn employer insights into real hiring pathways. These sessions bring together transition experts, workforce partners, educators, and training providers to align goals, expand apprenticeship pipelines, and ensure Veteran readiness. Their findings feed directly into VA programs like Veteran Readiness & Employment and Transition & Education Services.

Early priorities include smoother coordination between VA and DoD, increased use of SkillBridge, expanded employer networks, and improved communication across agencies.

More tools, resources, and fact sheets are on the way—including support for defense-industry careers through initiatives like DoD's Project Patriot Pipeline.

VA Launches GLP-1Trial for Alcohol Use Disorder

VA has begun a nationwide clinical trial to test whether semaglutide, a GLP-1 medication commonly used for diabetes, can help treat alcohol use disorder (AUD)—a condition affecting more than 400,000 Veterans. Early research suggests GLP-1 drugs may influence the brain's reward pathways and are associated with lower rates of AUD, fewer emergency visits, and fewer hospitalizations among people with substance use disorders.

The new study, Cessation or Reduction of Alcohol Consumption in Veterans, will enroll over 600 Veterans across 18 VA medical centers. Participants ages 18–80 with moderate or severe AUD will receive weekly injections of semaglutide or a placebo for 24 weeks, followed by a safety monitoring period. Researchers will track drinking behavior, health outcomes, and quality of life to determine whether semaglutide could become a meaningful new treatment option.

Recruitment began July 28, 2026. Veterans can learn more by contacting their local VA medical center or searching the trial on ClinicalTrials.gov.

VA cautions Veterans not to self-medicate with GLP-1 drugs or replace existing AUD treatments without medical guidance. Evidence-based care remains available at VA facilities, and Veterans should consult their providers before making any treatment decisions.

Veterans Crisis Line – Support Beyond Suicide Prevention

The Veterans Crisis Line is not only for moments of suicidal crisis—it's a resource for Veterans facing stress, relationship challenges, health concerns, financial struggles, or simply feeling "off." Reaching out early can make a difference before problems escalate.

Post 449 Chaplain Message

By Patricia Kingsbery 414-476-9485

First, I'd like to say a prayer for the family of Richard Strehlow, who passed away on July 4th. He served as a long-time member of the board and was our Service Officer. We pray that God will comfort the family.

There are two big events that the post is offering in October. We are not only supporting our veterans but also this community. We need our members to take an active role in promoting Legion 449. We have exciting things happening: Octoberfest: October 10th (pig roast, music, raffles, etc.) and First Responders Appreciation Day n October 28th. See enclosed flyers.

As you can see these big events will need your support in the form of donations, volunteers, and of course, your attendance. We want everyone to see how important this Post is to the Veteran and the community.

Brave is a Traumatic Injury program specifically for military veterans and first responders. It is an intensive, outpatient program that focuses on diagnosing and treating brain injuries so participants can return to normal life. The program is the first of it's kind in the Midwest and one of only a few in the United States.

I am working with Froedert on the "Brave Program" which encompasses care for brain injured veterans. The role of the American Legion will be to provide transportation for them so they can attend our events such as Octoberfest on Oct 10th, our Friday fish fry's, bingo music and just for socialization with others. This is an important role for Post 449 and I hope you will support it. It not only will support our veterans, who need us, but will also give us a positive image in the community. After all, this is what the American Legion is all about, to be there for the Veteran.

Hebrews13:16
"Don't forget to do good and share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased."

Proverbs 11:25
"A generous person will prosper and whoever refreshes others will be refreshed "

Giving freely, whether through resources, time, or encouragement, often returns growth, favor and wellbeing to your life.

THIS IS YOUR AMERICAN LEGION POST.
SUPPORT IT.
MAKE IT STRONG.

(I'd like to request also that you contact me regarding any deaths of our members. I'm here for you)

The American Legion is the largest U.S. veteran's organization with more than 1.6 million members who strengthen the nation through programs, services and advocacy for those who have services in the U.S. Armed Forces, youth and communities.

The Legion includes members of the Legion, Sons of the American Legion and the America Legion Auxiliary.

These three groups of people work together to support our veterans in many ways. While we each have our individual projects, we will make a stronger effort to support our veterans together with a joint effort. We are looking to the future. This means we will work together as one team to organize events in the future; we will work together based on each of our strengths and use those strengths to our advantage to support our veterans.

This means we are going to have to communicate with each other what we can do, what we can't do, what we need to work together. We have gotten away from this a bit in the past, but we are working to bring things closer together for the future.

If you have ideas for things you can do to support this effort or things you need to support this effort, please let the Leadership Team know. We want to hear from you!

Maybe you can't be on the committee to work on the event, but what you can do is support the event with your attendance. Bring your friends! There are many events planned in the upcoming months, please plan on attending.

September is upon us with lots of kids going back to school. Please keep a look out for these students as they walk or bike to and from school.

Our Auxiliary team is gearing up to our regular and new activities. Our Auxiliary meeting had a very informative guest, Dave Landrith and the Adjutant to our Auxiliary, Dave Vajgre discuss the focus of the American Legion Family as we plan our activities as a family unit. It was very encouraging for us to hear of their ideas that will in the future, be our ideas, too..

Since I am the Program Chair, I need a little help as to finding programs that assist Veterans, their families and our community. There is a lot of need out there with our Veterans, we want to be able to give them the help they need. Plan on attending any Auxiliary meeting to meet individuals who want to work with us and our Veterans.

Please take a look at our calendar of events for our Post. Plug into the many activities that are offered and those to come. As you visit the Post, be aware of flyers that announce activities.As an American Legion Family, we can all help and assist others.

Our Auxiliary is collecting school supplies until September 30. Bring them in and place them in the decorated box. These school supplies will go to the Metcalf Elementary school in Milwaukee. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

We are all gearing up to a good time ahead. Support Your Local Post, Post 449, Brookfield.
